

Maple Fudge

Illustrate the story here:

Uncle Billy wanted to take Able to the candy shop. They drove to a lot and jumped on a shuttle to the shop. When they walked into the candy shop, they smelled the fudge on the table. Able wanted a sample of the maple fudge. He hoped it would not be a hassle for the woman behind the table.

“Can I have a sample?” asked Able. “Yes, you can! Which would you like to sample?” said the woman. Able, with a giggle, asked for the maple fudge. “You picked the best one to sample!” said the woman.

Able nibbled on the fudge. “This is so yummy!” he said while licking his lips. Uncle Billy got a little bag of fudge for Able to take back home.
